

MISJUDGED THE PRESIDENT.

German Minister Sees Peril in Rough Rider Diplomacy—Apology to Wilson.

The Rev. W. Heineke, for years pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, at Dubuque, Iowa, now in business in New York city, declares in a public statement that the Republican party, in its attempt to defeat the re-election of President Wilson, is baldly using the German-Americans as a catspaw. The Rev. Mr. Heineke, while a resident of Dubuque was chairman of the German press committee of the German Embargo conference, and of the German Red Cross of Dubuque. He states that for a long time he was severely critical of President Wilson, but says he is not ashamed to confess that he misjudged the executive.

Misjudged the President.

"We misjudged President Wilson's position in this world conflict, assuming it to be pro-English and un-American," says Mr. Heineke. "We identified his actions with those of the pro-British press, every utterance of which appeared to the German-American element to reflect the mind of our government."

"Republican party interests have not been slow to make capital out of this state of affairs and to work the German-American vote for all it is worth, assisted by the German-language press. In the heat of the controversy we overlooked the fact that the Republican party, if it had been in power, and containing the most pronounced anti-German element of America, of the type of Cabot Lodge, Elihu Root and Robert Bacon, probably would have our country driven into an alliance with England and into war with Germany.

Owe an Apology.

"For many things said and written against the president the German-American citizens owe him an apology. Our criticism of his actions and motives has at times passed all bounds of discretion."

"Now, in the light of recent developments, in view of Republican activities and official utterances, I ask who is American first and last—Wilson who has steered the ship of state through unparalleled dangers and kept us out of war, these men, who are the leaders of the Republican party, and who have brought the immense pressure of big capital and inflamed public opinion to bear upon that lone man at the head of the nation, counseling war in sympathy with England and, while abusing the German-Americans in terms Wilson never used, playing out the German vote against the man who has stood like a rock in the way of all exploiters of truly American interests?"

Blindness of Press.

"I wonder that the German language press fails to take notice of the facts which tell all German-Americans in plain language, that the Republican party intends to use the German vote merely as a catspaw in this campaign. The blind 'anything-to-beat Wilson' sentiment of theirs is a valuable ally in the fight of the enemies of peace against Wilson. The Republican campaign leaders play a clever game in playing the German vote against the president."

"I fear when the game is up, German voters will regret to see that they have been 'sold.' In the hands of Hughes and the Republican party the issues the German-American stood for will be handled in rough-rider fashion, and America's hitherto wise and peaceful course will be put in the gravest danger."

GASOLINE CAUGHT FIRE.

Mrs. Erle J. Jackson, who, before her marriage on Sept. 9, last, was Miss Margaret Rowe of this city, had a narrow escape from serious injury last week at her home in Columbus, Wis. Mrs. Jackson was in the kitchen cleaning a coat with gasoline, when the fumes caught fire from an oil stove, which she did not know was burning. Gasoline on her hands began to burn, but the flames were extinguished with a rug, and Mrs. Rowe then went outside and called assistance. Passersby entered the house and put out the fire and the only loss was the burning of the garment Mrs. Jackson had been cleaning. She was uninjured, but her eyebrows and hair were singed.

Miss Georgia Stockley, a teacher in the Wausau schools, visited with her parents in this city over Saturday.

Eighty-five couples attended an enjoyable dancing party at the Parish House last Friday evening by the Blue Bell Club, an organization of telephone girls. The hall was artistically decorated with blue and white streamers and numerous paper lanterns were suspended from the ceiling. Pennants with appropriate expressions of the exchange were also hung on the walls and telephones placed about the hall. The frequent ringing of bells proved a novel device in reminding the dancers of the telephone word.

Weber's orchestra furnished a pleasing program of one step, two steps and waltzes. Dancing continued from shortly after nine until two o'clock. At midnight light refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, doughnuts and coffee. The party was the first of its kind to be given by the club and the proceeds, $50, will be used in charity work at Christmas time.

Ashland Press: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lamoreux and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sanborn entertained at cards at the former's home on Wednesday evening. The groom is a lathe hand in the employ of the Holt Electric Co. in Milwaukee.

The opportunity of meeting Rev. S. N. Wilson, D. D., and Mrs. Wilson was accorded a large number of friends by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Copps and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Copps last Friday evening, when a reception was held at the E. M. Copps home on Clark street from 8 to 10 o'clock. Guests were met at the door by little Miss Ruth Copps and were later received by the three couples named above and Mrs. H. A. Vedder, a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilson, who come down from Marshfield. Unlike the proverbial social function of this character, Friday evening's event was informal and each and all of the guests fully enjoyed the affair. Flowers and potted plants lent their attractiveness to the handsome home and the dining room was made especially charming with red shaded candelabra and streamers of this bright color suspended from the lighting fixtures. Choice refreshments were served by Misses Leila Chandler, Grace Hamacker, Carrie and Grace Skinner, Eva Webb and Elida Mogn. Instrumental music was furnished by E. J. Steckel and Miss Helen Humphrey.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilson recently moved here from Reedburg and are at present living with their younger daughter, Mrs. C. W. Copps, but will later go to housekeeping in the home now occupied by Geo. B. Nelson's family.

Grand Rites Leader, Oct. 20th: Miss Daisy Thornton and Amos Alford were married at high noon today at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Waldo Catkins at Plover, only immediate relatives being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hanson of the Baptist church of this city. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. The young people will make their home at Wausau where Mr. Alford is employed. Miss Thornton has many friends here who will wish her happiness in her new home.

The Woman's club has set aside next Saturday as "Baby Day" in its calendar and the meeting at the public library at 3 o'clock that afternoon will be devoted to an appropriate program. First grade pupils of the public schools will sing baby songs under the direction of Mrs. Luella C. Pierce; Dr. Anna E. Clark will read a paper on "Hereditry"; a discussion on "Better Babies" will be led by Mrs. J. E. Delzell and Mrs. J. W. Glen-

The members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers were hostesses to about eighty of their lady and gentlemen friends at a "500" party in their hall on the South Side Monday evening. Mrs. Merton Fuller and Leonard Nohr were winners of first prizes, while the consolations went to Miss Leona Viertel and William C. Mason. Refreshments were served and the event was a signal social success.

The local branch of the Brotherhood of All Railway Employees held their first annual banquet in Adams' hall, South Side, last Wednesday evening, when members and their families, to the number of over two hundred, assembled. There was a very pretty wedding service at St. Peter's church Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock when Father Elliott united in marriage Joseph Barwick and Miss Helen Tzeby, both of this city. The attendants were Frank Somers, John Bogaczky, Misses Pearl Tzeby and Martha Barwick, the latter two being sisters of the bride and groom, respectively. Little Mary Povolowski was the charming flower girl.

Miss Helen was gowned in white crepe de chien and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Her bridesmaids and flower girl, wore pink dresses of the same material and carried bouquets of carnations.

Dinner was served at the bride's home on North avenue, where a reception was held during the afternoon and in the evening a number of other friends also partook of their hospitality at Lasecki's hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Barwick left for Milwaukee this morning to visit relatives a few days and upon their return will go to housekeeping in a newly furnished home on North avenue.

Joe is a native Stevens Pointer, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barwick, 1026 Briggs street, and is one of our city's best young men. He is a painter by trade and for the past few years has been employed by the Soo company.

Until recently the bride filled a position at Miss Frost's fishing fly factory. She is a bright, good looking of the local Auxiliary to the Order circle of friends. They start out on life's journey together with the well wishes of all who know them.

Eleven Wausau ladies motored to the city last Friday to attend a meeting of the local auxiliary to the Order of Railway Conductors. The visitors were entertained at luncheon at the home of Mrs. George Gemberling at noon. This makes Mr. Howe's third matrimonial venture and Mrs. Howe's second. His two last wives and her first husband are deceased.

The biggest crowd that ever gathered in Lasecki's hall, N. Second street, attended the autumn ball given by Sacred Heart society Monday evening. The hall was decorated for the occasion and the music was furnished by Weber's orchestra. The event was a success in every way, the net proceeds being about $60.

DEMOCRAT CANDIDATES

Brief Sketch of the Several Aspirants for Office at the November 7th Election.

Member of Assembly.
Joseph J. Omernik, a retired merchant and large property owner at Polonia postoffice town of Sharon, was accorded the Democratic nomination for member of assembly and should receive the undivided support of all Democrats for this office. He is a native of the county, a man of good judgment and of excellent business ability, a fact attested by his accumulation of large property interests. Mr. Omernik is in the prime of vigorous manhood and if chosen to this important office he will give it every attention and will work and vote for the best interests of the people.

County Clerk.
His success as a building contractor is indicative of the ability of M. J. Mersch, candidate for county clerk on the Democratic ticket and who was accorded the nomination without opposition at the September primaries. Mr. Mersch is a product of Portage county and it can be truthfully said of him that no better citizen ever lived among us. He is the possessor of a good education and if chosen as county clerk will fill the duties of this office in a manner satisfactory to every taxpayer. The slogan that he has adopted, "Always on the job," suggests that he will devote his whole time to the office work. Voters will have no occasion to regret the casting of their ballots for Mr. Mersch.

County Treasurer.
His experience as a bookkeeper and accountant is a big asset in the candidacy of James W. Pierce of Plover for the performance of the required duties in the performance of the required clerical duties associated with this position. Mr. Pierce is a gentleman of unquestioned integrity—as honest as the sun. Make a X after his name on Nov. 7th and in the event of his election the office is certain to be in competent hands for the coming term.

Register of Deeds.
Frank F. Shippy, whom the Democratic voters chose as their nominee for the important position of register of deeds, needs no introduction to most of our readers as he is a lifelong resident of the county and is regarded as a young man of far more than average ability. His interests for several years have been along the line of the position to which he now aspires, he being an abstractor and notary public, and is also engaged in the retail shoe business. For a period of four years while his father, the late John Shippy, was register of deeds, Frank filled a position in the office and is therefore peculiarly well qualified to assume these duties next January. His agreeable personality is assurance that all who have dealings with him will be accorded courteous treatment. Frank Shippy deserves your support.

Clerk of Court.
Jolly, good natured Ed. H. Rossier was selected by the Democrats as their standard bearer for the office of clerk of circuit court, and all who know the gentleman will agree that the choice could not be bettered. Mr. Rossier is proprietor of the Springfield roller mills, just north of Plover village, where through close attention to details and hard work he has gained a very satisfactory business. We have no hesitation in commending him to the voters as a gentleman in every way qualified to discharge the duties of the office to which he aspires.

Sheriff.
Everyone who has any knowledge of the work which the sheriff is called upon to do must admit that it requires several months' time to learn the various details. His experience as a former sheriff of the county is therefore of particular advantage to John F. Kubisiak of Amherst, who again asks the suffrage of voters as the Democratic nominee. When Mr. Kubisiak retired from the office two years ago and again took up farm work, it was generally conceded that his administration was satisfactory to all concerned. Even those who had transgressed the laws and became involuntary boarders at the county bastille for a long or short time, were treated as human beings. You will make no mistake by putting a cross mark to the right of John F. Kubisiak's name on the ballot.

District Attorney.
What is in many respects the most important county office is that of district attorney, the position to which J. R. Piffner aspires, and if he is elected as the head of the county's law department it will unquestionably be in competent hands. Mr. Piffner has had many years' experience as a practicing lawyer in this city, at Watertown and Tomahawk and has been eminently successful in his chosen calling. He will appreciate your support on election day.

Surveyor-Coroner.
Although relatively of less importance than some of the other offices, the position of county surveyor requires much technical knowledge and a goodly amount of common sense in the performance of these duties while the coroner is at times called upon to act in cases requiring much tact and ability. For surveyor the Democrats have extended the nomination to that veteran deseciple of the square and compass, E. A. Williams, who knew how to run lines and levels before most of the present generation were born. He is now just as efficient, or perhaps more so, than ever and in the event of his election the office will be capably handled. Joseph Kamrowski, the nominee for coroner, is engaged in the undertaking business on N. Second street. He has all the requisites necessary to serve in this capacity.

POLOVER.
Albert Sprung of Chicago is making his annual visit among friends here.

Lawrence Gunderson, who has been ill all summer, does not improve any. He has rheumatism.

W. J. Pierce and daughter, Evelyn, of Cadott visited at the home of his father, M. F. Pierce, Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Yorton, who now resides at Fond du Lac, arrived Saturday for a few days visit with friends here.

The Ladies' Aid will serve a New England supper from 5 to 8 o'clock on Thursday evening, Oct. 26, at their rooms in the church. All are invited to attend.

A large number of the citizens of the village turned out Tuesday to work on the roads, but Ross Altenburg was the only man and team that came in from the country, so all work was done in the village, fixing up side-paths and street crossings, and a great improvement was made.
